

ACORN SQUASH WITH BAKED APPLES AND PECANS

"Perfect for the fall and winter!"

- 2 small acorn squash
- 1 16-18 ounce can sliced pie apples
- $\frac{1}{4}$ cup light brown sugar
- $\frac{1}{4}$ cup raisins
- $\frac{1}{4}$ - $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon vanilla
- $\frac{1}{8}$ teaspoon nutmeg
- 2-3 tablespoons chopped pecans
- $\frac{1}{2}$ tablespoon butter or margarine

...from our collection of family favorites

Preheat oven to 350. Halve squash and remove seeds; remove a small slice from the rounded bottom to allow squash to sit flat. Place squash, cut side up, in baking dish just large enough to hold squash in a single layer; set aside. Combine all remaining ingredients, except pecans and butter or margarine; fill centers of squash. Pour hot water around sides of squash to a depth of $\frac{1}{2}$ inch; cover dish tightly with foil and bake 30 minutes. Uncover; top with pecans and dot with butter or margarine and bake an additional 25 to 30 minutes or until squash is fork tender and pecans are golden brown. Serves 4 generously.

To halve winter squash: The hard outer covering requires a sharp, large knife. The squash covering can be softened slightly by piercing the outer edges with a large fork and placing on a plate in the microwave, on medium heat, for a few minutes. Do not overcook in the microwave; as soon as the outer covering is softened, it is ready to halve.

“Delicious with roasted pork or turkey!”

The use of this material and the words ‘Words Worth Eating’ is licensed by Jacquelyn G. Legg.