

Baked Fresh Fettuccine w/ Spinach

- 2 lbs. fresh spinach
- 1 white onion, minced
- 1 garlic clove, minced
- 8 slices prosciutto, diced
- 2 T. butter
- 2 T olive oil
- 2 T flour
- 1 1/2 c. light cream
- Juice of 1 lemon
- 1 t. salt
- 1/2 t. freshly ground pepper
- 1 lb. fettuccine, cooked barely al dente
- 4 T. freshly grated Parmesan cheese

Rinse spinach, drain + cook in a covered pan until soft - There's no need to add water; the water that clings to the leaves is sufficient. Drain spinach, press all the liquid from it + chop it. In a large sauté pan, cook onion, garlic, + prosciutto in butter + oil until onion is soft but not brown. Blend in flour + cook, stirring for 2 min. w/out letting the flour brown. Add cream slowly + stir until the sauce is smooth. Blend in spinach, lemon juice, salt, + pepper. Place freshly cooked fettuccine in a large warm bowl, pour over the spinach sauce, + toss to mix. Place fettuccine in a buttered gratin dish + sprinkle w/ Parmesan. Bake in a 375° oven for 10 min. or until cheese browns + the sauce bubbles. Serves 6
