

Ukrop's

Words Worth Eating

BROCCOLI AND CHEESE STUFFED POTATO

"A meal in itself!"

4 medium-large baking potatoes, baked and cooled slightly 1-2 tablespoons margarine, softened
1/2 cup milk

1/2 grated Cheddar cheese
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup small broccoli flowerets, steamed until fork tender 1 tablespoon corn oil

Preheat oven to 350. Cut baked potatoes in half lengthwise. Carefully spoon potato out of shells; save shells. Mash potatoes with margarine until fluffy; add milk, as needed, to make a soft, smooth mixture. DO NOT ADD TOO MUCH MILK! Add cheese, salt and broccoli; mix gently. Rub outside of shells lightly with oil; fill centers with potato mixture. Place in a shallow pan; bake 20-25 minutes or until cheese melts and potatoes are golden brown. Yields 8 halves.

Note: Can be prepared early in the day and baked at serving time.

"Delicious as a vegetable entrée!"