

Ukrop's

Words Worth Eating

FRESH GREEN SALAD WITH PEPPERCREAM DRESSING

"A delicious dinner party salad!"

1 small head Boston lettuce
2 heads Bibb or butter lettuce
3 stalks Belgian endive
1/2 bunch watercress
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
2 tablespoons chopped chives
1 tablespoon chopped fresh dill

2 teaspoons chopped fresh thyme or 1/2 teaspoon dried thyme
1-2 ripe avocados, sliced
2 green onions with tops, sliced,
for garnish

PEPPERCREAM DRESSING:

2 cups mayonnaise

1/4 cup red wine vinegar

1/2 cup freshly grated Parmesan cheese

2 tablespoons freshly squeezed
lemon juice

1/8 teaspoon hot pepper sauce

1 tablespoon grated onion with juice

1/2 teaspoon garlic powder

1-2 tablespoons freshly ground black pepper (use amount for personal preference)

Wash all lettuce and dry very well; tear lettuce into bite-size pieces. Wash endive; dry and slice over lettuce. Wash watercress; discard stems and dry well. Place on top of endive. Top with fresh herbs that have been washed, dried and minced. DO NOT TOSS SALAD. Cover bowl tightly with plastic wrap and chill several hours. Just before serving, add sliced avocados and toss; top with dressing. Garnish with green onions and serve on salad plates. Serves 8-10.

PEPPERCREAM DRESSING: Combine all ingredients in blender or food processor and blend until smooth. Store in covered jar in refrigerator until ready to serve.

NOTE: This dressing is also delicious made with freshly ground green peppercorns. "Great with beef tenderloin or standing rib roast for a special Christmas or New Year's dinner!"