Nathalie Dupree's Killer Pasta Salad

Makes 8 to 10 servings.

Dressing:

- 1 tablespoon Dijon mustard
- 5 cloves garlic, chopped
- ¼ cup white wine vinegar
- ¾ cup olive oil
- ¼ cup chopped green onions (both white and green parts)
- Salt AND freshly ground pepper

Salad:

- ¼ pound fresh snow peas, strings removed
- 1 small bunch broccoli, florets only
- 2 small zucchini, cut into ¼-inch slices
- 1 large red bell pepper, seeded and cut into thin strips
- 1 pound short pasta, such as rotelle OR fusilli OR penne
- ¼ cup freshly grated Parmesan cheese

Dressing: In a jar, combine mustard, garlic, wine vinegar, oil, onions, salt and pepper, to taste shake until creamy. Set aside.

Salad: Bring a large pot of salted water to a boil. Cook snow peas in water for 1 minute; remove with a long-handled strainer and immediately drench with cold water to stop cooking process and brighten color.

Repeat with broccoli and zucchini, cooking for 3 minutes each. In a bowl, combine cooked vegetables with red bell pepper and toss with half the dressing.

Cook pasta in vegetable water for 8 to 10 minutes. Drain, rinse with cold water and drain again. Toss with remaining dressing. Combine vegetables and pasta. Sprinkle with cheese. Add more salt and pepper to taste. Refrigerate until ready to serve, at least 1 hour or up to 2 days, covered.
