|----------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| $\frac{3}{4}$ cup sugar | 1 (3-ounce) package |
| $\frac{1}{2}$ cup chopped pecans | cream cheese, cut into |
| 1 tablespoon grated | 20 squares |
| orange rind | $\frac{1}{2}$ cup butter or |
| 2 (11-ounce) cans | margarine, melted |
| refrigerated | 1 cup sifted powdered |
| buttermilk biscuits | sugar |
| (we used 1869® brand) | 2 tablespoons orange juice |

Combine first 3 ingredients in a small bowl; set aside.

Separate biscuit dough into individual biscuits; gently separate individual biscuits in half. Place a cream cheese square between the 2 halves, and pinch sides to seal each back together. Dip in butter, and dredge in reserved sugar mixture. Stand biscuits on edge in a lightly greased 12-cup Bundt pan, spacing evenly. Drizzle with remaining butter, and sprinkle with remaining sugar mixture.

Bake at 350° for 45 minutes or until golden. Immediately invert onto a serving plate.

Combine powdered sugar and orange juice; stir well. Drizzle over warm bread. Serve immediately. Yield: one 10-inch coffee cake.
