SUMMER SQUASH AND CORN

“An old-fashioned Pennsylvania Dutch vegetable!”

3-4 strips of bacon

$\frac{1}{2}$ cup sliced onion

2 cups sliced yellow squash

$\frac{1}{3}$ cup water

4 teaspoons sugar

1-2 ears of corn (cut corn from the cob)

Fry bacon; remove from pan and save. Saute' onion in bacon grease until it begins to become transparent; add squash and saute' 3-4 minutes. Add water and sugar; cover and cook over low heat approximately 15 minutes. Remove top; add cut corn, cover and continue to cook for 5 additional minutes. Garnish with bacon. Serves 4.

Note: This recipe can easily be halved or doubled.

"You will be amazed how delicious the corn is when added to the squash!"
