TACO SALAD

"Serve as a main dish on a hot night!"

1 head iceberg lettuce, shredded
1 ripe avocado, peeled and mashed 1/2 cup sour cream
1/4 cup bottled Italian dressing
1 tablespoon chopped green onions

3/4 teaspoon chili powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 15 ounce can red kidney beans, drained well
1/2 cup sliced ripe olives, drained 1/2 cup sliced pimento-stuffed olives

2 ripe tomatoes, peeled and chopped cracked pepper to taste 1 cup shredded sharp Cheddar cheese
1 cup broken tortilla chips

Shred lettuce and set aside. Combine avocado, sour cream, Italian dressing, green onions, chili powder and salt. Place lettuce in the bottom of a flat bowl; top with beans, olives and tomatoes. Spoon avocado dressing over the salad and top with cracked pepper, cheese and chips. Toss and serve. Serves 6-8.

Note: If serving this salad from a buffet, it can be assembled as described but the chips should be placed around the edge. Do not toss until ready to serve. Well-drained cooked ground beef can be added if desired.

“The delicious avocado dressing can be used as a dip!”
