BEEF WITH STIR-FRIED VEGETABLES

"Combines 8 delicious vegetables!"

1 pound lean beef, cut into thin strips
1/2 teaspoon sugar
1-2 tablespoons soy sauce
1 tablespoon cornstarch
1-2 cloves garlic, minced
1/2 cup celery, slant cut

1 sweet red or green pepper,
sliced in strips
1 cup broccoli flowerets
2 cups shredded cabbage
1 cup bean sprouts
1 cup sliced mushrooms
4-8 shallots, peeled and halved

(over)

2-3 green onions with tops, chopped
2 tablespoons corn oil
1/2 cup chicken broth
1/3 cup roasted, unsalted
peanuts

1 teaspoon sesame oil

MARINADE:

1 tablespoon red wine vinegar
1 tablespoon soy sauce
2 tablespoons cornstarch

Combine marinade; add beef and toss to coat. Marinate for 1 hour. Combine sugar, soy sauce and cornstarch; set aside to use to thicken sauce. Prepare all vegetables for cooking. Heat wok or large frying pan; add oil and garlic. Stir-fry 30 seconds. Add celery, green pepper and broccoli; stir-fry 2 minutes. Add cabbage; cook 1 minute. Add bean sprouts, mushrooms, shallots and green onions; cook 1 minute. Place vegetables on platter and place in warm oven. Do not wash wok. Place undrained beef in wok and stir-fry for 2 minutes; add vegetables and chicken broth; bring to boil. Restir cornstarch mixture and add, as needed, to thicken sauce. Stir constantly. Do not overcook. Add sesame oil; mix. Pour onto serving plate; top with peanuts. Serve with hot rice. Serves 4-6.

Note: Fresh bean sprouts should be rinsed in boiling water before cooking. Be sure to drain well! Pre-sliced stir-fry beef can be found in Ukrop's meat department. Sesame oil is used for flavoring rather than cooking.
