Soak scallops in cold salted water for 10 minutes. Drain and pat dry. Butter a glass-baking dish; arrange scallops in the dish. Combine garlic, lemon juice, butter, salt and pepper and drizzle over scallops; reserve some for use when serving. Broil on highest rack for 4-5 minutes; turn and broil an additional 2-3 minutes or until scallops are tender. If additional browning is desired, place bits of butter on top of scallops and return to broiler. Garnish with lemon slices and parsley. Serves 4.
