

Ukrop's

Words Worth Eating

"Stir-Fried Recipes"

CHICKEN WITH MANY FLAVOR SAUCE

"Turkey or pork can be used in this recipe!"

1 pound boneless chicken,
cut in thin strips
3 tablespoons oil, divided
2 cloves garlic, minced
1 teaspoon fresh ginger
root, minced
3-4 green onions with tops, chopped

2 tablespoons Hoisin sauce
1-2 teaspoons red wine vinegar
1-2 teaspoons soy sauce
1/2-1 teaspoon sugar
1 1/2-2 cups bok choy, shredded
1 sweet red or green pepper,
seeded and sliced

(over)

*1 cup sliced fresh mushrooms or canned straw mushrooms
1/2 cup sliced water chestnuts
1/4-1/2 teaspoon red pepper flakes*

MARINADE:

*1 egg white beaten until frothy
1 tablespoon cornstarch
1 tablespoon soy sauce*

Prepare marinade and pour over chicken; toss and marinate 1 hour. Place 1/2 tablespoon oil in heated wok or large frying pan and add garlic, ginger and green onions; stir-fry for 1 minute. Add next 4 ingredients; mix well and set aside. Place 1 1/2 tablespoons oil in wok; stir-fry undrained chicken for 2-3 minutes; drain and set aside. Place remaining 1 tablespoon oil in wok; add all remaining ingredients and stir-fry for 1-2 minutes. Add cooked chicken and sauce; stir until heated through. Serve with hot rice. Serves 4-6.

Note: Add hot pepper flakes according to personal taste. Pre-sliced, stir-fry chicken can be found in Ukrop's meat department.

"Garnish with minced green onions!"