

RECIPE FOR PIE ON COVER

Strawberry Cheesecake

That luscious cheesecake pie on our cover is much easier to make than it looks. You start with a no-bake cheesecake mix and top it with best-of-the-season strawberries in a shimmering gelatin glaze.

Use the graham cracker crumb crust from the mix instead of the pastry crust, if you like—

1 10<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub>- or 11-ounce
package cheesecake mix 1/3 cup chopped almonds,
toasted

2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 quart strawberries
1 3-ounce package strawberry-flavored gelatin

RECIPE FOR PIE ON COVER

Strawberry Cheesecake

That luscious cheesecake pie on our cover is much easier to make than it looks. You start with a no-bake cheesecake mix and top it with best-of-the-season strawberries in a shimmering gelatin glaze.

Use the graham cracker crumb crust from the mix instead of the pastry crust, if you like—

1 10<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub>- or 11-ounce
package cheesecake mix
1/3 cup chopped almonds,
toasted

1 9-inch baked pastry shell with high fluted edge, cooled

1 cup sugar

2 tablespoons cornstarch

1 quart strawberries

1 3-ounce package straw-
berry-flavored gelatin

1 tablespoon butter or margarine

1 tablespoon lemon juice

Prepare cheesecake mix according to package directions; stir in almonds. Pour into baked pastry shell; chill 1 hour. Meanwhile, in saucepan, combine sugar and cornstarch. Mash 1 cup of the strawberries; add water to make 2 cups. Stir into sugar mixture. Cook and stir to boiling; boil 2 minutes. Remove from heat; strain. Add gelatin, butter or margarine and lemon juice; stir till gelatin dissolves. Chill till partially set. Spoon 1½ cups of the gelatin mixture over cheesecake mixture. Arrange remaining strawberries, pointed end up, over pie. Carefully spoon remaining gelatin mixture over berries, being careful not to overflow pastry edges. Chill till set. Makes 6 to 8 servings.