

FRIED OYSTERS

- 1 pint of oysters
- 1 cup of House-Autry Seafood Breader
- 1 cup of Japanese bread crumbs
- 1 tablespoon of Old Bay Seasoning
- Canola oil

Mix the seasoning, bread crumbs and seafood breader in a large bowl. Strain the oysters and then toss them into the mixture so they get coated. Lay the oysters out on an ungreased shallow baking pan and freeze them for at least two hours. To finish, fry the oysters in canola oil at 175 degrees until they're golden and crisp. Serve with your favorite cocktail sauce.
