

GRILLED CHICKEN WITH HONEYDEW SALSA

"A great combination of summer flavors !"

SALSA:

$\frac{1}{2}$ honeydew melon, peeled and seeded and cut into quarter-inch cubes

1 small red onion, diced

1 medium tomato, diced

$\frac{1}{2}$ - 1 jalapeno chile pepper, seeded and diced (see note)

$\frac{1}{2}$ - 1 tablespoon finely chopped cilantro

1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice

$\frac{1}{8}$ teaspoon Tabasco

pinch of salt

CHICKEN:

6 boneless, skinless chicken breasts, flattened slightly

1-2 teaspoons extra-virgin olive oil

$\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon salt

$\frac{1}{8}$ teaspoon freshly ground black pepper

...from our collection of family favorites

CHICKEN: Rub flattened breasts with oil, salt and pepper; grill over a medium hot fire for 3-5 minutes per side depending on thickness of chicken and heat of grill.

SALSA: Combine all salsa ingredients and chill 30 minutes before grilling chicken. Spoon salsa over warm chicken.
Serves 6.

NOTE: Use kitchen gloves when handling jalapenos. Adjust amount of spices and peppers to personal taste.

“A nice little kick in the salsa adds to the grilled chicken!”

The use of this material and the words ‘Words Worth Eating’ is licensed by Jacquelyn G. Legg.