

Words Worth Eating

IRISH LAMB STEW

"A springtime specialty!"

2-3 pound lamb shoulder, cut into 1-1 1/2 inch cubes.

(Yields approximately 1 1/2 pounds of lamb cubes.
Save meaty bones.)

4 tablespoons butter or margarine, divided

3 tablespoons flour

6 cups water

1/2 teaspoon salt

1/2 teaspoon cracked pepper

2 large cloves garlic, minced

6 medium white onions, quartered or 18 small whole white onions, peeled

1 turnip, peeled and cubed

(over)

4-5 carrots, peeled and cut into eighths 6-8 medium red-skinned potatoes, unpared and quartered
1/2 teaspoon Kitchen Bouquet

1 10-ounce package frozen green peas, undefrosted
1/2 teaspoon Jane's Krazy
Mixed-Up Salt
1-2 tablespoons minced parsley
4-6 slices of cooked bacon

Trim ALL fat from lamb. Melt 2 tablespoons butter in a Dutch oven; add meat and brown. Sprinkle flour over lamb; add water, salt, pepper and meaty lamb bones. Bring to a boil, cover, reduce heat and simmer for 1 1/2 hours. Discard meat bones. Sauté garlic, onions, turnips and carrots in 2 tablespoons butter until light golden. Add vegetables and potatoes to lamb; cook uncovered for 20 minutes. Add Kitchen Bouquet, peas and Krazy Salt. Cook 10-15 minutes or until potatoes are tender. Serve with cracked pepper, parsley and bacon. Serves 4-6.

Note: Do not stir more than necessary; overstirring breaks up vegetables!

"Serve hot with crusty bread for a hearty and delicious main dish!"

The use of this material and the words 'Words Worth Eating' is licensed by Jacquelyn G. Legg.