

Words Worth Eating

JUMBO DELUXE SURPRISE BURGERS

“Melted cheese and bacon are nestled inside!”

2 $\frac{1}{4}$ pounds lean ground beef
6 tablespoons Oscar Mayer real bacon bits

6 slices American cheese
3 teaspoons Dijon mustard
 $\frac{3}{4}$ teaspoon coarse ground pepper

$\frac{3}{4}$ teaspoon salt
6 large sandwich rolls or hamburger rolls
2–3 tomatoes, sliced
1 $\frac{1}{2}$ –2 cups shredded lettuce
6–8 teaspoons mayonnaise

Divide the beef into twelve 3-ounce patties. Brown the bacon bits lightly on foil in a toaster oven or broiler. Arrange 6 patties on a tray. Top each patty with: 1 tablespoon bacon bits, 1 slice of cheese which has been folded in quarters, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon mustard, $\frac{1}{8}$ teaspoon pepper and $\frac{1}{8}$ teaspoon salt. Place the 6 remaining patties on top and seal the edges of the two patties by pressing firmly with your fingertips. Grill over a medium-hot charcoal fire for approximately 6-7 minutes on the first side and 5 minutes on the second. This produces a burger with a pink center. Since fires vary greatly, the cooking time may have to be adjusted. Serve in a roll with lettuce, tomato and mayonnaise. Serves 6.

Note: You only need one of these jumbo burgers per person.

“Best served in a large deli-style roll!”