

MEDALLIONS OF PORK WITH PEAR SAUCE

16

Ready in under fifteen minutes, pork chops are transformed by this simple yet sensational sauce into an entrée good enough for company.

Add sautéed cabbage and roasted potatoes to complete the meal. Finish with old-fashioned Chocolate Pudding.

- 2 tablespoons vegetable oil
- 4 1/2-inch-thick boneless pork loin chops
- Dried rubbed sage
- All purpose flour
- 2 pears, peeled, cored, thinly sliced (about 1 pound)
- 1/3 cup dry white wine
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 2 tablespoons chopped crystallized ginger

Heat oil in heavy large skillet over medium heat. Season pork with dried sage, salt and pepper. Coat pork with flour; shake off excess. Add pork to skillet and sauté until brown, about 3 minutes per side. Transfer to plate.

Drain fat from skillet. Add pears and sauté over medium heat 2 minutes. Stir in wine, sugar and ginger, scraping up any browned bits. Increase heat to high and boil until pears are tender and syrup is thick, about 5 minutes. Return pork and any accumulated juices to skillet. Simmer just until cooked through, about 1 minute. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Arrange pork on plates. Spoon sauce over and serve.
