

Words Worth Eating

SEAFOOD VELVET

"A combination of flounder and shrimp!"

1/2-1 pound flounder fillets, cooked 1 pound small or medium shrimp, cooked and cleaned 2 tablespoons finely sliced green onions, including tops 1 cup mayonnaise
1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese

1 tablespoon spicy brown mustard 1/4 cup plus 2 tablespoons coffee cream or light cream 2 tablespoons bread crumbs paprika
fresh sprigs of parsley 1 sliced lemon, for garnish

Break fish into large chunks; remove all bones and skin. Cut large shrimp in half; set seafood aside. Combine all remaining ingredients except paprika, sprigs of parsley and lemon; mix well and gently fold in seafood. Spoon mixture into 6-8 lightly greased individual baking shells. Bake in a preheated 425-degree oven for 15 minutes or until golden. Do not overbake! Serves 6-8. Garnish with paprika, parsley and lemon slices.

Note: This dish can be prepared early in the day for relaxed entertaining. The flounder should be poached or steamed before adding to this dish.

“Serve this elegant flounder dish with a green salad and baked rice!”