

My mother made this pecan pie every Thanksgiving and Christmas. It is simple and delicious—and different from the classic recipe. We still enjoy it at holidays and hope you will too.

Pecan Pie Sheila Mathey

4 large egg whites

1 $\frac{1}{3}$ cups graham cracker crumbs

1 cup sugar

1 $\frac{1}{3}$ teaspoons double-acting baking powder

1 $\frac{1}{3}$ teaspoons vanilla

1 cup coarsely chopped pecans whipped cream as an accompaniment

In a bowl with an electric mixer beat the whites until they just hold stiff peaks and fold in the crumbs, the sugar, the baking powder, the vanilla, and the pecans. Pour the batter into a buttered 9-inch pie plate and bake the pie in the middle of a preheated 350° F. oven for 25 to 30 minutes, or until it is puffed and golden. Let the pie cool and serve it with the whipped cream.
