

Tenderloin Of Beef in Herbs

Perfectly cooked and delicious beef filet is encircled with fresh sage and rosemary to form a rich and savory holiday wreath.

- 1 filet of beef, ready to cook
(have butcher tie beef and include a layer of fat on the side)
- 2 large cloves of garlic, cut into slivers
- 1 tablespoon coarse-grind black pepper
- 1 tablespoon dried thyme
- 2 bunches fresh rosemary (reserve 4 sprigs for garnish)
- 2 bunches fresh sage (reserve 1/2 bunch for garnish)
- 1 teaspoon coarse (kosher) salt

- 1. Preheat oven to 425°F.
 - 2. With the tip of a sharp knife, cut slits in the filet and insert garlic slivers in the slits.
 - 3. Rub filet all over with black pepper and thyme.
 - 4. Lay sprigs of rosemary and sage on top of and around filet and carefully tie in place with kitchen string.
 - 5. Place thin sheet of fat on top of herbs and sprinkle with salt. Place filet in a shallow roasting pan.
 - 6. Bake filet for 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 350°F and bake an additional 20-25 minutes for rare meat or 35 minutes for medium rare. Remove fat layer and herbs.
 - 7. Place on a large attractive platter garnished with reserved rosemary and sage. Carve into 1-inch-thick slices.
- Serves 8