Preheat oven to 200 degrees; place an ovenproof platter in oven for later use. Heat oil and butter or margarine in a heavy-bottom large skillet, uncovered over medium-high heat. Place flour, salt and pepper on flat plate. When oil is hot, quickly dip veal pieces in flour and shake off excess flour. Sauté as many pieces as fit comfortably in a single layer. Cook 2 minutes per side; remove from pan and place on heated platter and keep warm. Continue cooking remaining veal. When all veal has been cooked, deglaze skillet with lemon juice and spoon over veal. Garnish with sliced lemon and parsley. Serves 6.
