

Meat Loaf - (Weber Grill)

- 1 celery heart (2 1/2 in. in diameter)
- 1 cup grated sharp Cheddar Cheese
- 2 tbsp. finely Chopped pimiento
- 3 lbs ground beef
- 1/2 cup quick-cooking rolled oats
- 1/2 cup evaporated milk
- 1 tbsp. seasoned salt
- 1 tsp. garlic powder
- 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
- 1/2 tsp. Chili powder
- 1/2 tsp. pepper
- 2 eggs, slightly beaten
- 1/2 cup. Chopped onion
- 1/4 cup Chopped green pepper
- 1 lb. sliced Bacon

Remove celery leaves & cut celery heart to about 8-9 in. long - wash & dry. (Keep bottom of celery intact - do not remove root.) Gently pull branches apart & sprinkle with salt. Combine Cheese & pimiento, spread generously between celery branches. Wrap heart tightly in foil and chill while preparing meat loaf.

Combine all remaining ingredients except bacon & mix. Turn meat mixture onto large sheet of waxed paper and pat out to an oval of about $11 \times 12 \times \frac{3}{4}$ inches. Cut off only the very bottom of root of celery heart - place on center of meat.

Fold meat up and over celery - pat into roll shape, completely enclosing celery.

Lay bacon slices in chevron pattern over top of roll (overlap slices slightly). Gently lift roll on one side & tuck ^{ends} bacon underneath. Repeat on other side (use picks if necessary). Tie roll securely with string - wrap in foil - seal top with drugstore fold - do not close ends.

Using indirect method - place meat loaf over drip pan and cook $1\frac{1}{4}$ hours (drain grease into drip pan occasionally by pushing foil down and letting it run in pan). Remove foil and cook 20 minutes longer.
