

GRILLED TUNA WITH WARM PINEAPPLE SALSA

"Easy and spectacular!"

4 6-ounce tuna steaks
 $\frac{1}{2}$ lemon
2-3 teaspoons extra-virgin olive oil
 $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon salt
 $\frac{1}{8}$ teaspoon freshly ground black pepper

PINEAPPLE SALSA:
1 16-ounce can pineapple tidbits
in its own juice, undrained
1 lime, juiced
2 tablespoons red wine vinegar
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup light brown sugar
1-2 jalapeno chile peppers,
seeded and chopped

...from our collection of family favorites

TUNA:

Rub both sides of tuna with oil and season with salt and pepper. Grill over medium hot heat for 4-5 minutes per side. Do not overcook. Tuna should have a pink center. Place tuna on serving plates and spoon warm pineapple salsa over one half. Garnish with cilantro and a lime slice.

Serves 4.

SALSA:

Heat all salsa ingredients except cilantro over low heat for 20 minutes. Add cilantro and serve.

Jalapeno note: Wear gloves when handling jalapenos. Canned chiles can be used.

“Also delicious with fresh pineapple!”

The use of this material and the words 'Words Worth Eating' is licensed by Jacquelyn G. Legg.