NORWEGIAN MACAROONS

“Made with oatmeal and topped with almonds!”

3/4 cup sugar

1/4 cup dark brown sugar, packed

1 1/2 cups quick-cooking oatmeal

1 cup pre-sifted flour (use out of the bag)

1 teaspoon baking powder

1/2 teaspoon salt

*1 3 1/2 ounce can Baker's Angel
Flake coconut*

1 stick butter, melted

1 stick corn oil margarine, melted

1 egg

$\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon nutmeg

$\frac{1}{4}$ cup sliced almonds

Preheat oven to 350. Mix first 6 ingredients together; add coconut. Stir in melted butter and margarine; add egg. Mix well and drop by heaping teaspoons onto an ungreased baking sheet. Leave approximately two inches between cookies to allow the edges to brown. Flatten each cookie slightly with a fork and top with 3 or 4 almond slices and a sprinkle of nutmeg. Bake 15 minutes. Do not overbake! Yields approximately 36 cookies.

Note: To avoid having the fork stick to the dough, dip the fork in cold water after flattening each cookie.

“These exceptionally easy cookies have a rich buttery taste!”
